

Charmaine Stulp

Invite a Voice of Truth, Rest, and Hope

Charmaine is a passionate follower of Jesus who communicates authentically about the ditches of life, and the beauty, rest, and hope that can still be found. She speaks from a place of deep-rooted experience and grit. With 31 years of marriage and the journey of infertility and then raising two children, she brings a wealth of "in-the-ditch" wisdom to every stage.

As a former pastor's wife, Charmaine has navigated the unique joys and pressures of ministry with grace and transparency. She is known for her down-to-earth approach, often drawing parallels between spiritual growth and the practicalities of everyday life—whether she's cheering from the stands at a hockey rink or clearing her head on a long walk.

When she isn't sharing her heart with an audience, you can likely find her in the garage; she has a particular passion for power tools and isn't afraid to get her hands dirty on a DIY project. Charmaine's mission is to encourage others to build a life of purpose, grounded in faith and the courage to be exactly who God created them to be.

Why Charmaine?

- Raw Authenticity:
No polished pretension ~ just real, relatable truth that connects deeply with hearts
- Message of Margin:
Practical, spiritual wisdom on trading burnout for holy, protected space
- Hope for the Valley:
Compassionate preaching that reminds us God's grace and beauty meet us even in the ditches of life
